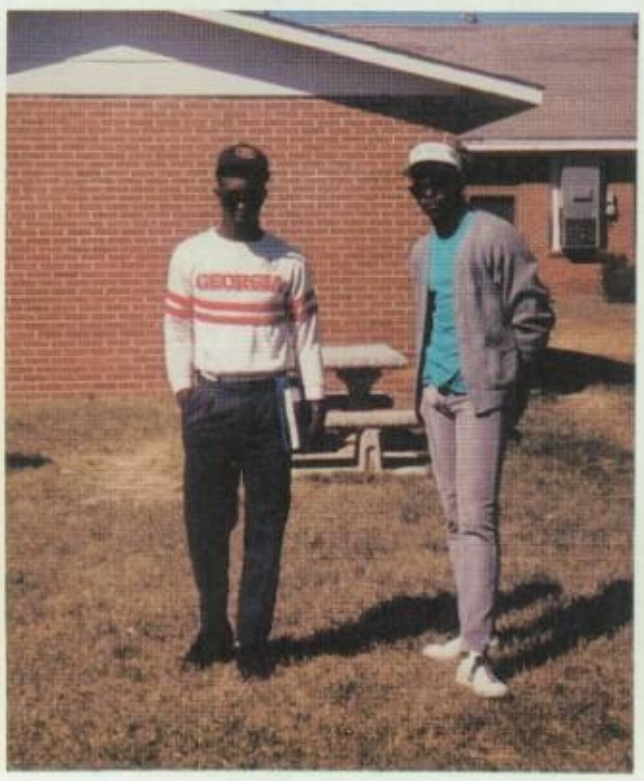
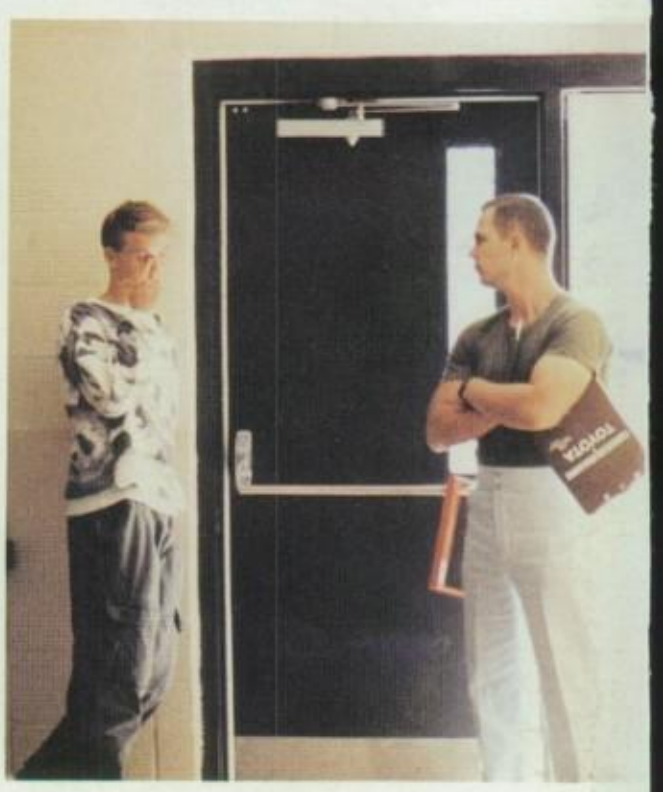
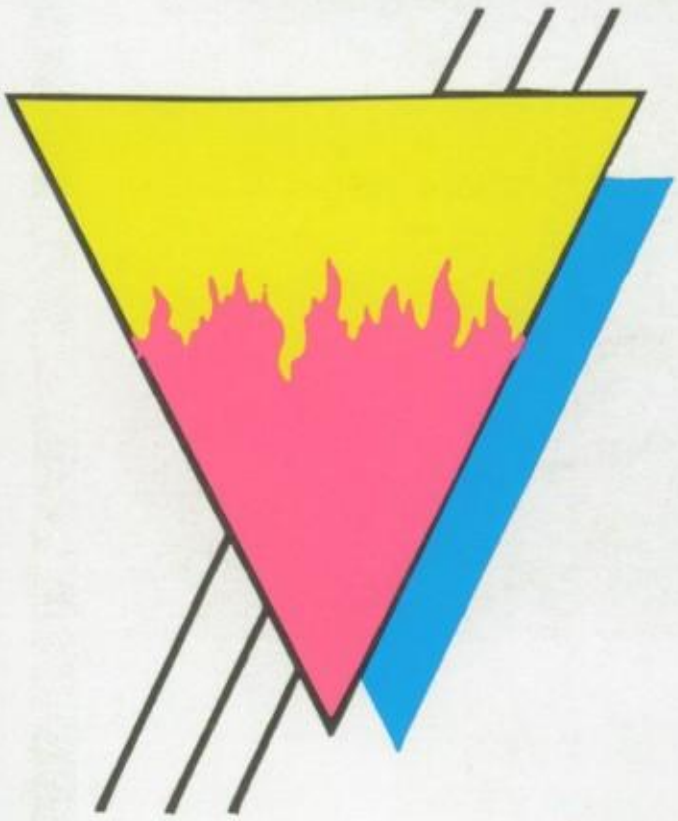
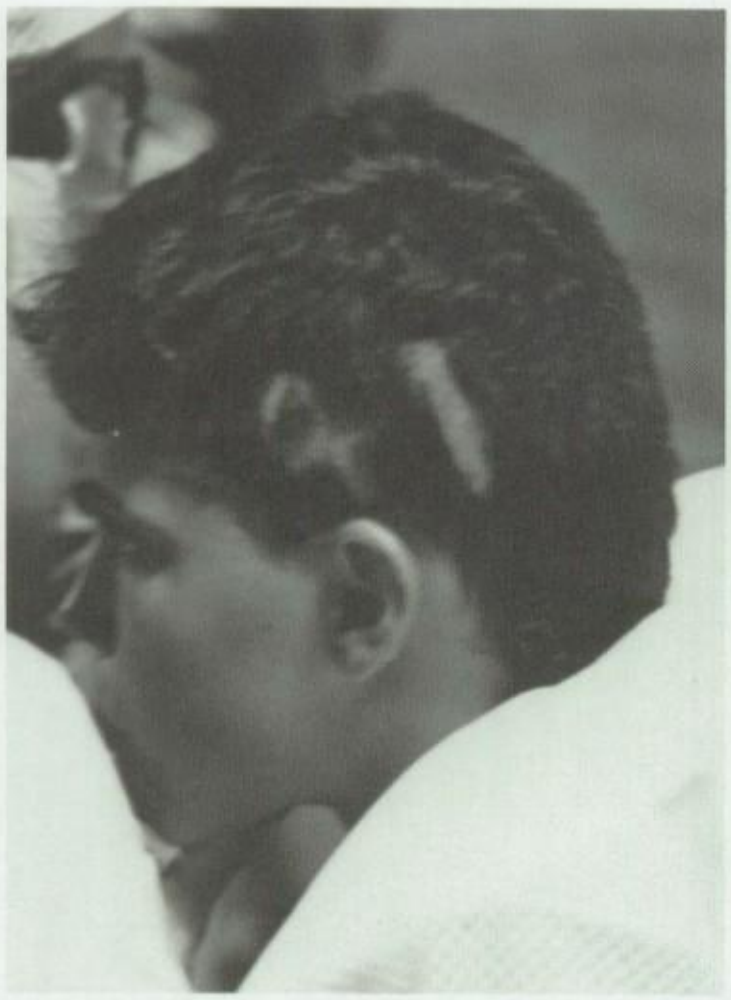
Your style is the image you project. It may not be who or what you really are, but rather who you appear to be.

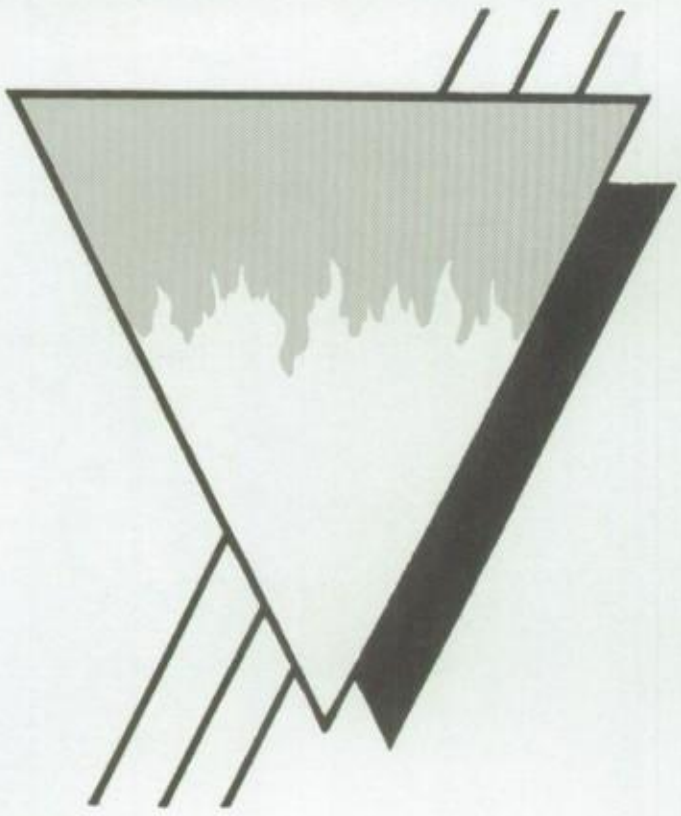




"Le style c'est l'homme meme." (The style is the man himself.) — George-Louis LeClerc de Buffon





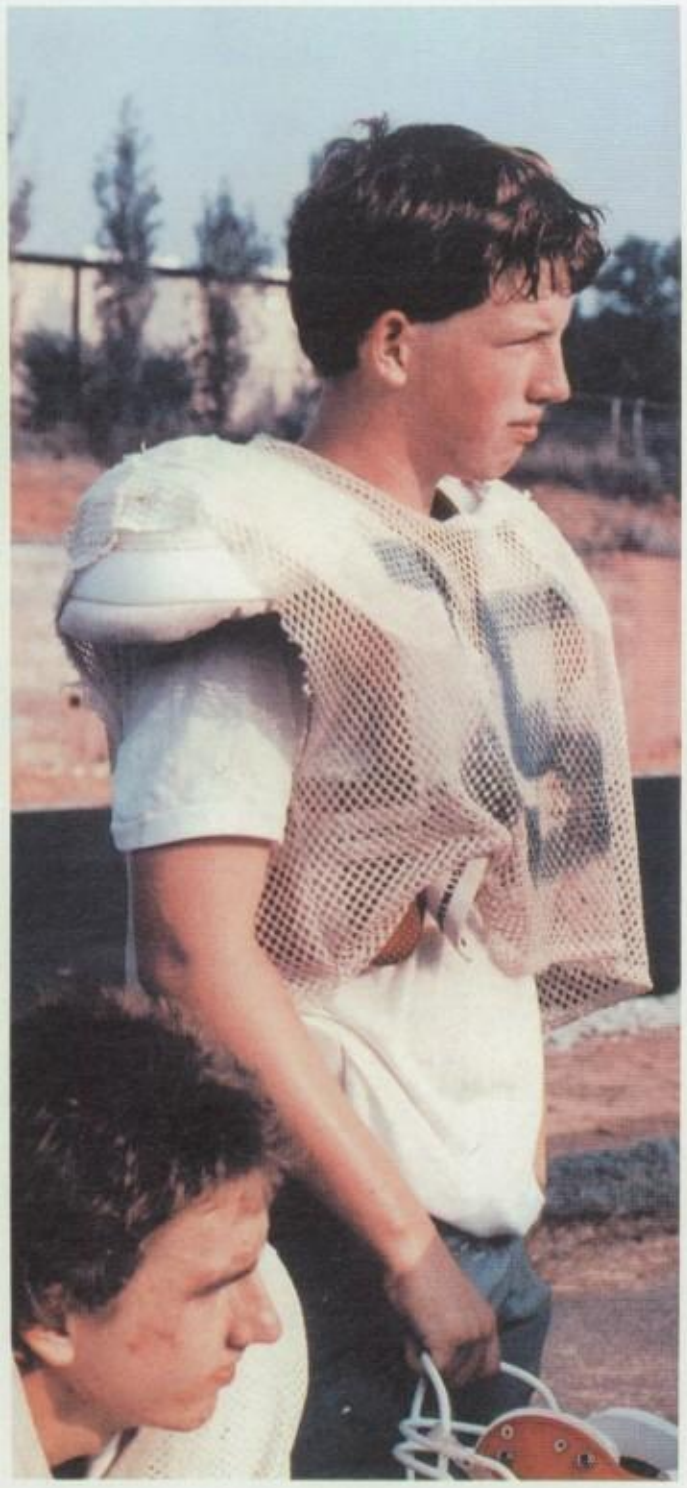


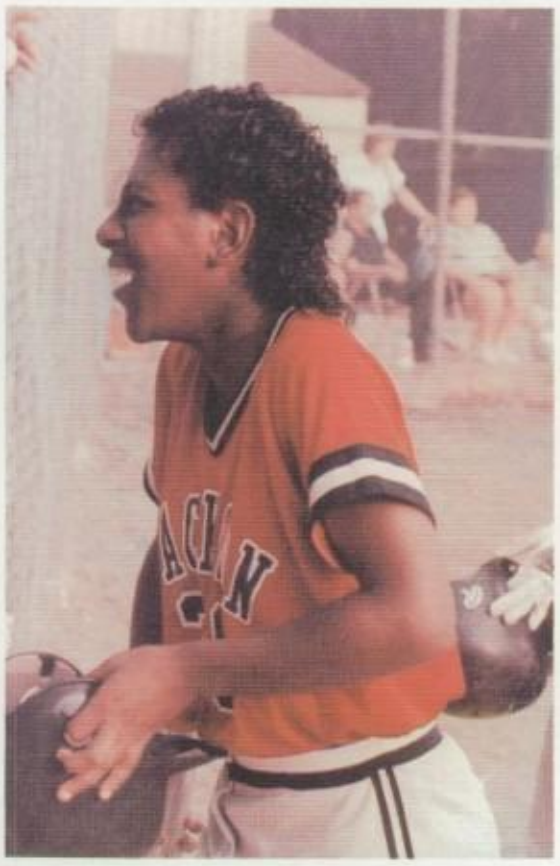
We acquire an attitude, a taste, a habit, a mode, a manner, a goal. Over time, influenced by family, friends, home and the media, these things become us; and our individual styles emerge.

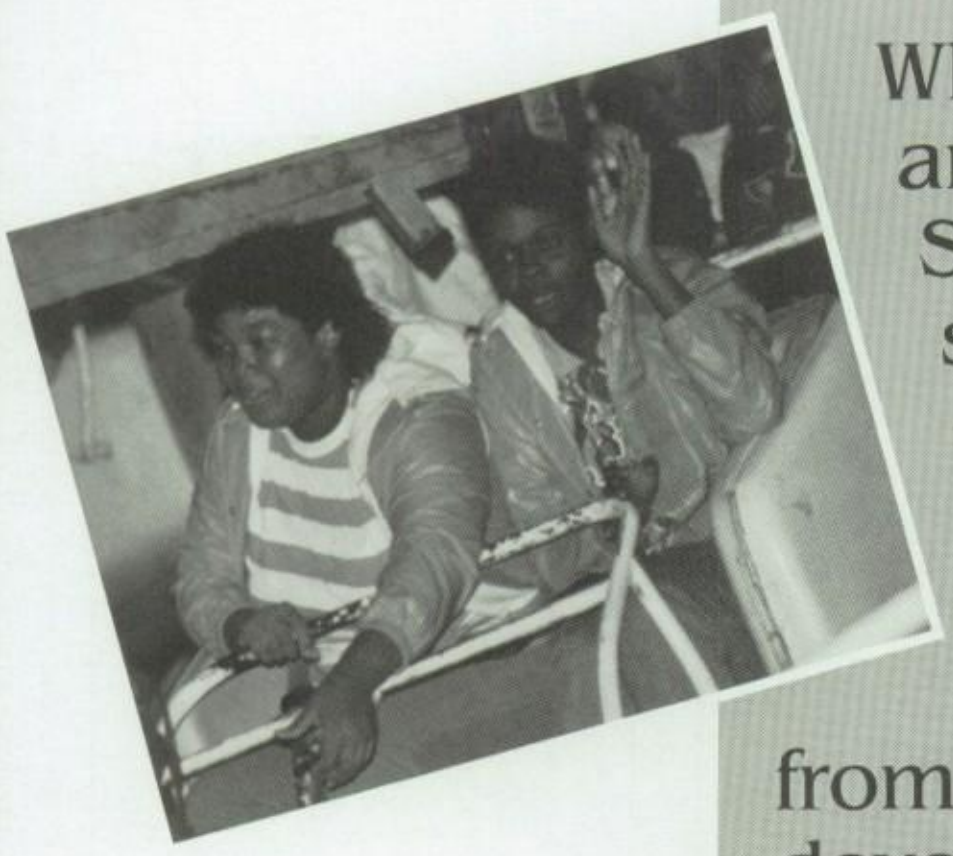
"It is most true, stylus virum arguit, — our style betrays us." — Robert Burton

"Style is the dress of thoughts." from the letters of Philip Dormer Stanhope, Earl of Chesterfield

Part of knowing who we are is being aware of our own personal style of living — working, learning, talking, playing, dressing, loving.







Whether it be bumming around the mall on Saturday afternoon, or studying for a big exam on Thursday night, each of us has our own way of doing things. In every aspect of our lives, from sleeping to driving, we develop a style all our own.

"Such labor'd nothings, in so strange a style, amaze th' unlearn'd, and make the learn'd smile." — Alexander Pope, An Essay on Criticism

Living, planning, and working together; playing, smiling and laughing together; caring worrying, and crying together; trying, failing, and succeeding together — we create a group style.

"The grand style arises in poetry, when a noble nature, poetically gifted, treats with simplicity or with severity a serious subject." — Matthew Arnold, On Translating Homer

"Proper words in proper places, make the true definition of a style." — Jonathan Smith in a Letter to a Young Clergyman

At Jackson High School in 1988, each has his own individual style. But we are all a part of the Red Devil Style. We are a part of a tradition as old as Indian Springs and the Towaliga, as new as the chorus and Kenny Moore.

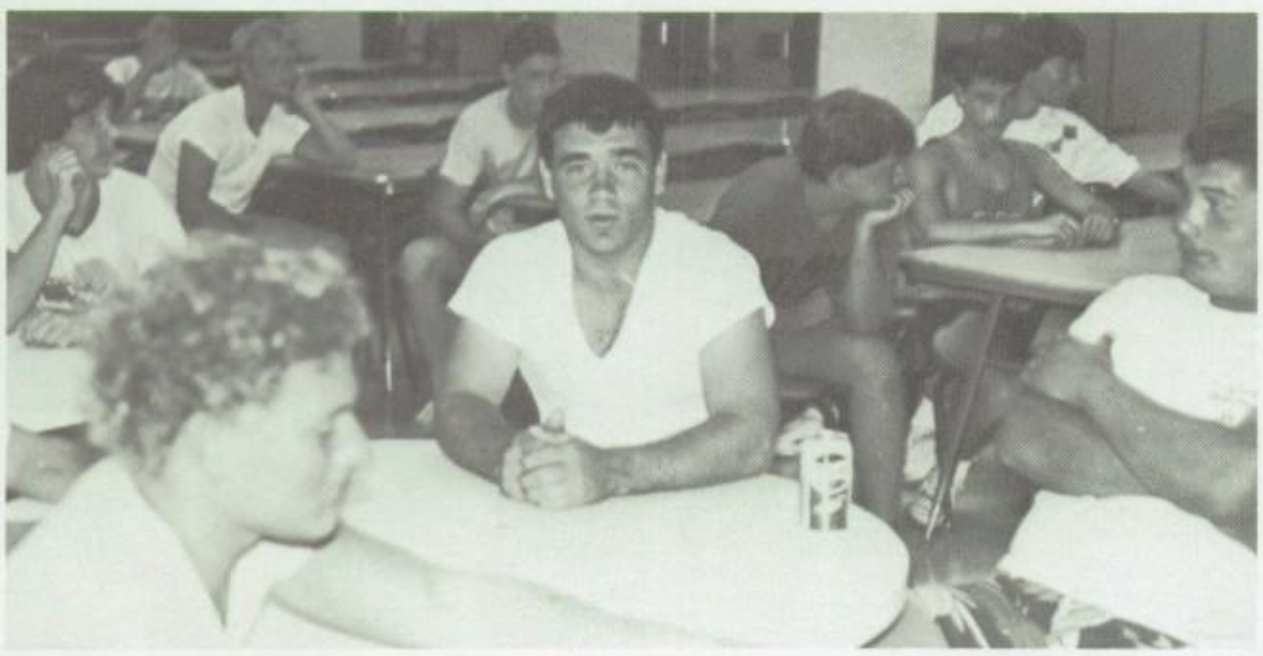
Red Devil style is a desire to do one's best — to be the best. It is pride in school and self. It is what we say. It is what we do. It is who we are. It is a matter style.



Stylebook — (yearbook) A book consisting of examples of rules of style.

We are pieces of a puzzle

Student Style

Students at Jackson High School vary in size and shape as well as in interests and ideals. Just like different pieces of a puzzle, each one unique in shape and placement, students at JHS are individuals who makel up the institute . . .

Different foods are enjoyed by different people in a special social occasion held daily of campus also known as lunch. Friends play an important role in our lives as sidekicks in different situations and as makers of great memories. Sets of two are everywhere at JHS. In the courtyard, on the breezeway, and in the hall, one can see couples.

Studying is an aspect of school which some dread and others actually seem to enjoy it. Personalities vary like the weather and the emotions we exhibit are proof of this.

The style of JHS is a compilation of the individuals that dress a certain way, win region titles, set high academic standards, cheer on winners, cry, laugh, make memories and then graduate.

"The grass was mowed yesterday, so cole slaw will be on the menu today."
JHS students make the cafeteria food the butt of many jokes, but the length of the lunch lines proves the popularity of Red Devil Cuisine. Students grab sack lunches, enjoy the salad bar, or choose the tray lunch with a variety of foods available.
Many people use the lunchroom to see their sweethearts. They gaze into each other's eyes over a tray of pizza and peaches. Others find a way to study in the noisy environment.
Lunch is one of the best parts of the school day. There are always laughs to be found and memories to create. Sometimes you just can't stop thinking about lunch, especially after you've had the chili.

She balances an ice cream cone in her mouth. Middle right: Chris Wolfe takes a few moments to rest during the lunch period. Bottom right: Sheila Watson flashes a smile as she prepares to eat.

Pairing Up

Being a couple means giving up a class ring so that it can be filled with wax or worn on a chain around a sweaty neck. It means sitting on the phone for hours listening to another person breathe. It means using cases of notebook paper to compose heartfelt correspondence several times a day on such noteworthy subjects as "She said . . . " "He said . . . " "Are you mad at me?" "What's the matter?" Being one half of a couple that is constantly seen at JHS is all these things and more. It is spending time with someone and getting to know that special someone better.

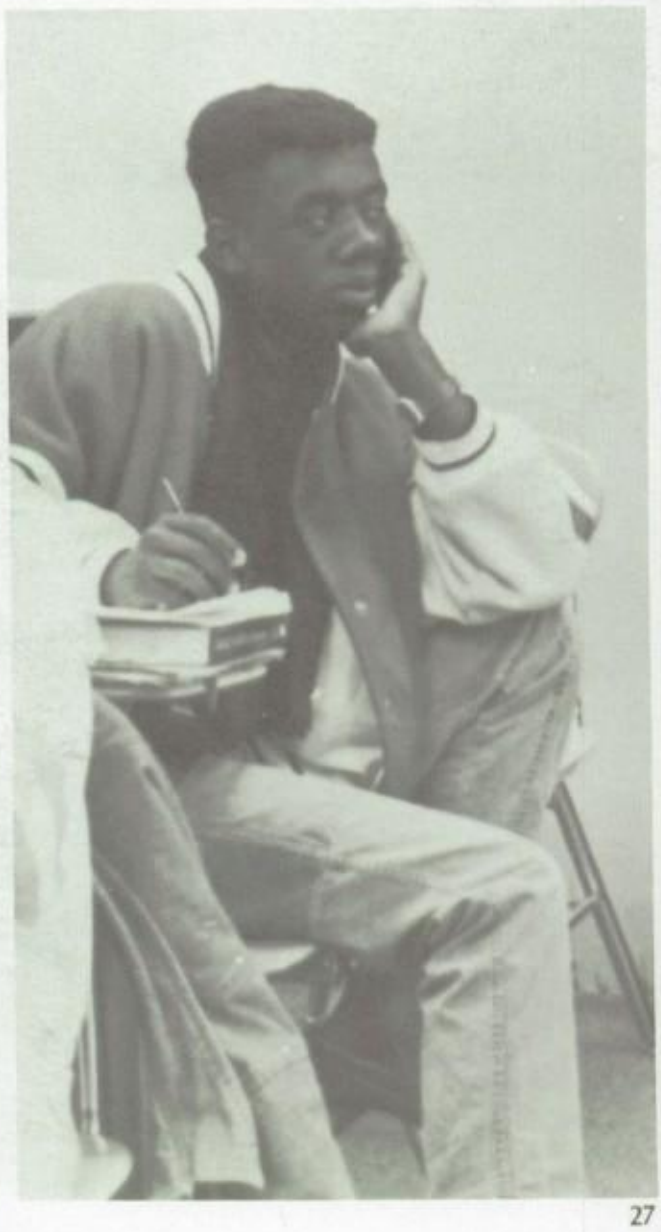
Giving Academics our best shot

What is a sine? What is the date of the 1929 stock market crash? How many lines are in an 8 x 11 sheet? What is the function of the pituitary gland? Who was John Donne? What is the Magna Carta?

For one hundred and eighty days students roam the halls of JHS in a quest to answer the above questions and thousands more. Of course, students just crave examinations which are usually given on Fridays so as to ruin a good weekend. They hunger for eight week reports to see how far they have progressed. Vocabulary tests and 500 word essays are always looked forward to. Who doesn't love timed writings? "Please, ask me again to name the muscles in the body or elements of the periodic table!" "Why, yes, I'll gladly do word problems." Students love drafting, sewing, cooking, and landscaping with a passion.

Maybe the enthusiasm level does not soar that high; however, most JHS students realize that an education is important. They put their best writing utensil forward to be the best that they can be academically.



Friends make the difference

One of the reasons many people come to school is to be with their friends. Jokes are shared between classes. Eyebrows lift at the same time in shock or amazement. Lunch is half a candy bar. The other half goes to a friend.

A friend talks with you and not to you. A friend laughs with you and not at you. A friend listens to what you are saying rather than thinking about what to say next. A friend wants to know why, not just how, when, or where.

A friend won't climb over the wall of your anxiety fortress, but will wait patiently until you let down the drawbridge.

A friend won't unlock the secrets of your heart. A friend will open it, only if given a key.

A friend will accept you for what you are, and won't try to change you into something you can never be. A friend will love you anyway, and will see the best and gently draw it from you when no one else sees it.

Faces reveal feelings

Emotions are exhibited on our faces with the widening of eyes, the dipping of a nose, the tilt of the head, or the mouth widening to form a smile. Showing emotion is a difficult task for some. Others find sharing a smile as easy as breathing.

Possessions are pondered

"Don't touch my stuff!" "Don't even think about turning that radio station." "Yeah, I bought it yesterday . . ."

Objects are of great influence in our lives. The types of music that JHS students listen to are varied from Lynyrd Skynyrd to RUN-DMC to Van Halen to Beethoven.

Clothing is one of the necessities of life. However, for many it is an extension of the inner self. Styles change constantly. Some trends at JHS this year are high collars, white tennies, big-faced watches, and t-shirts that are walking billboards for different products.

A simple thing such as a snack can mean alot to a person. A munch on a Little Debbie Snack Cake between classes can help one make it through the day.

Pets are like relatives in some families. They are companions that listen intently to problems when no human confidant is to be found.

Jewelry, whether it be $3 earrings or gold bracelets encrusted with diamonds, are ornaments to some and necessities to others.

On many Middle Georgia days, the sun is not to be ignored, so sunglasses are an essential item.

An oatmeal pie can be a big determining factor in the survival of a day at JHS. This page, top left: Jason Phillips, voted best dressed of the Class of 1988, wears a stylish sweater. Top right: Music plays an important role in our lives whether it be heard from a compact disc player or an old-fashioned juke box. Middle: Steve Henderson looks cool in his shades. Middle right: Books are treasured possessions. Some like it hot

Jackson High School's Homecoming Week for 1987-88 proved to be the most spirited one ever. Students dressed to show their spirit during the week, donning outfits appropriate for the theme of the day. To begin the week, Monday was beach day. Most of the students came prepared to ride the waves. Shorts, sunglasses, and Panama hats abounded. Tuesday's theme was "Somewhere in Time," and most students dressed in either the 50's Happy Days style, or in the 60's hippie fashion. Wednesday was jersey day. Students wore either a football jersey or a club jersey. On Thursday, everyone wore hats and sunglasses. They sported their "cool shades" and "bad brims." Friday was red, white, and blue day, and students wore school colors. They jammed out at the pep rally to show their support for their school and the football teams. To ice the week, students showed in great numbers to watch the Red Devils win over the Harris County Tigers, 34-6.

JHS is hot with spirit

A wild and screaming pep rally Friday topped off an exciting homecoming week, firing up the Red Devils, and acknowledging outstanding individuals and groups. FBLA announced the results of the spirit chain contest. The softball team was also honored with a trophy for their softball achievements. The football team in a sweet, surprise gesture showed their appreciation to the cheerleaders with roses.

Devils rock with style

After the 34-6 victory by the Red Devils, students went to dance the night away at the Homecoming Dance to celebrate. The dance was sponsored by the Key Club, Mr. Colvin was the D.J., and many prizes were given away during the night. This capped off an exciting Homecoming week.

To boost spirit even more, a homecoming parade took place after school on Friday. The softball team, clubs, and other organizations showed their spirit by decorating trucks and floats to show their support. The only flaw was the lack of a band. The mix-up marred one of the largest parades ever. Band director Bowen blamed lack of communication for his group's no-show.

Musical force emerges at JHS

Under new direction, the band marched its way to a new level of excellence.

A week long camp was held August 17-21. Drum Major Lindia Newman stated, "People are willing to work at it to make it good." This willingness was later seen on the football field during halftime.

Many hours were spent practicing on long, hot Tuesday and Thursday afternoons. "Barbara Ann," "America," and "On Broadway" were just some of the songs performed on the field. Mr. Bowen had promised numbers, and he delivered. There are 52 members as compared to a handful last year. "Finally, we have a real band!" stated one football fan as the much enlarged Red Devil Marching Band took to the field in September.

The concert band performed their Christmas concert for the school and for the general public.

Voices harmonize for JHS

Reflecting the strong emphasis on music, the largest choral group in the history of JHS sang their way through the year.

Director Theresa Patterson created a "Salute to America" program to celebrate the 200th anniversary of the U.S. Constitution. The chorus was later invited to sing at Walt Disney World in the spring.

The singers also performed at football games, in the choral competition at the Gordon College Academic Bowl, and at the Miss Butts County Beauty Pageant. Several members also tried out for All-State Chorus.

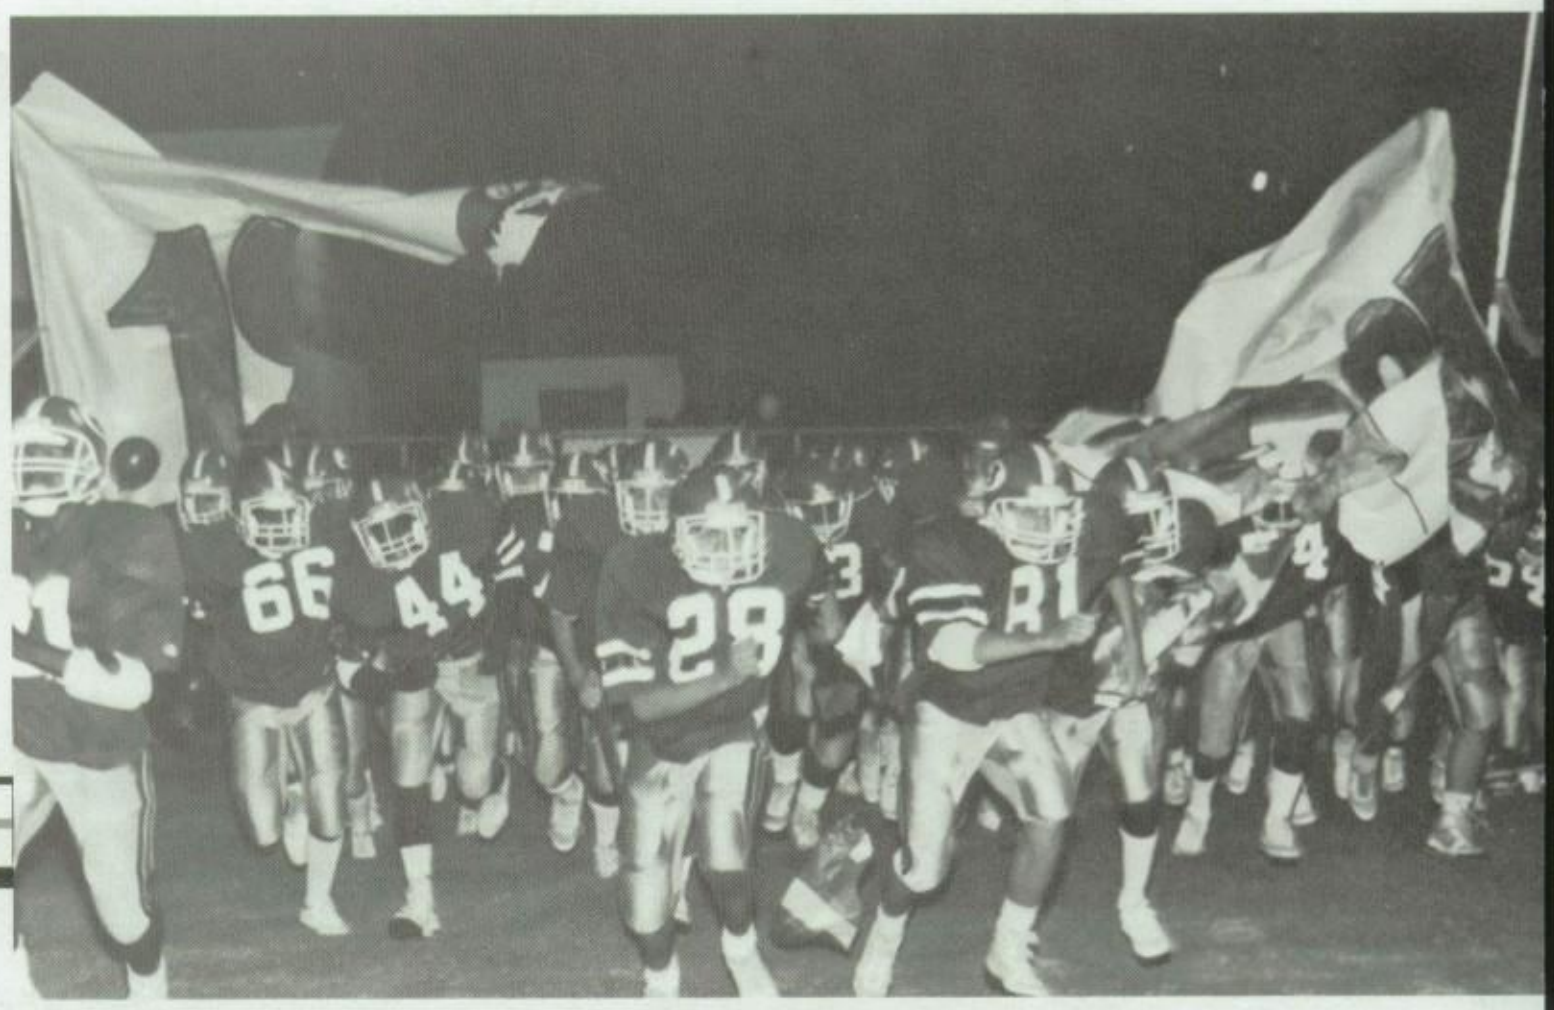
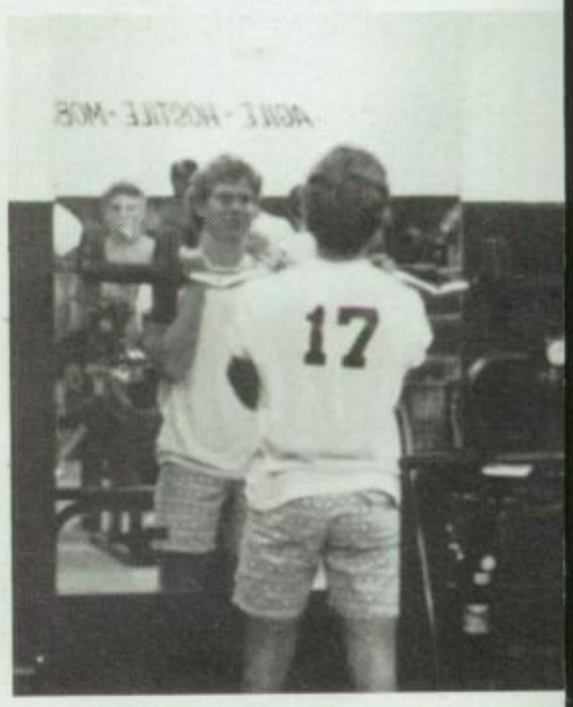
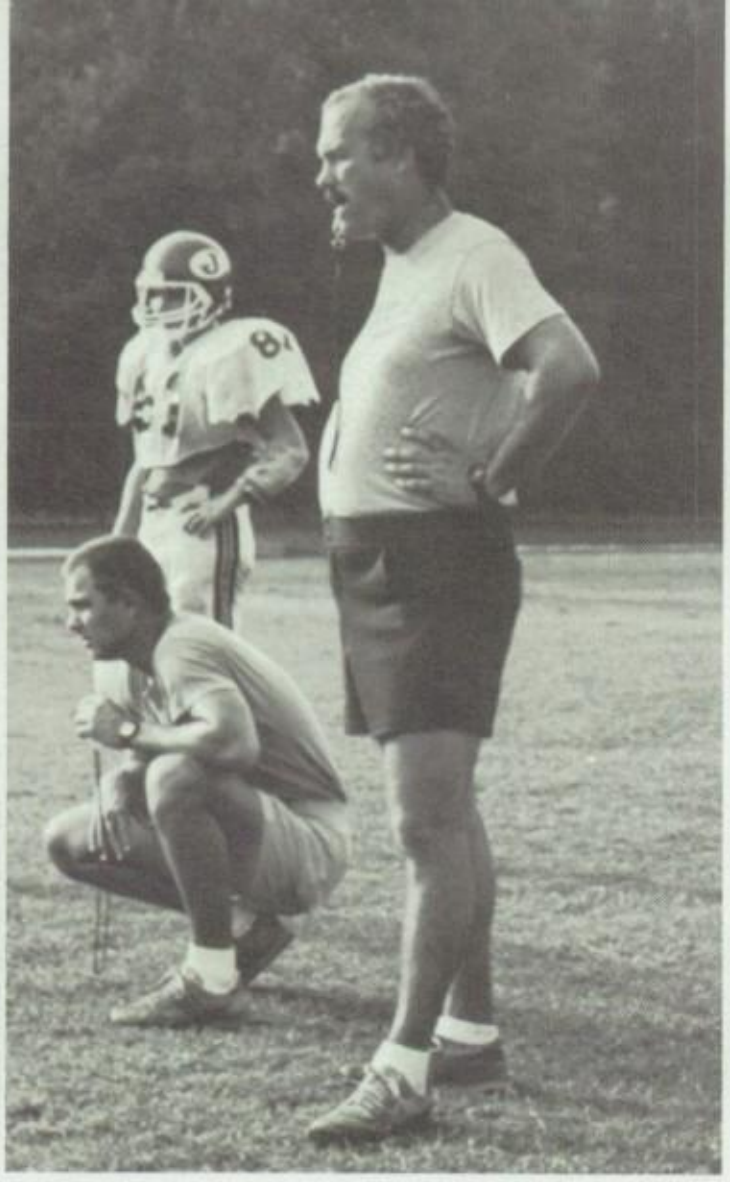
Devils get Moore and better; move into. playoffs.







Coach Kenny Moore brings winning attitude — Devils make playoffs

The Jackson High School Red Devils finished the 1987 regular season with a record of 5-5, coupled with a trip to the region playoffs. This was only the second playoff birth in 23 years for JHS. The new coaching staff set the foundation and promises a winning tradition for years to come for the Devils.

The Devils opened their season against AAA Stockbridge. Winning the game by a score of 6-2 showed the first glimmer of a defense which would not yield.

Monticello went 10-0 in regular season play, beating the Devils in their second game of the year. The Devils led 7-6, but with 1:45 left on the clock, special teams broke down. Monticello ran a Jackson punt back 85 yards for the winning touchdown and a Devil loss of 12-7.

Jones County, another AAA school, handed the Devils their first loss at home. Despite a strong defensive shield, offense had its problems. Jones Counlty won 12-6.

At 1-2, the 1987 year did not look bright, but none of those games were region games.

In their first region game, the Devils defeated Harris County at their homecoming, 7-6. Penalties were abundant, but the Devils held on. Bernard Banks scored on a 50 yard pass from quarter back Tracey Dumas.

At their own homecoming, Jackson blew away Pike County, 34-7. Defense again played a key role.

Against Lamar County, the Devils played spoiler defeating the Trojans 35-7, in another homecoming duel.

The Devils were leading the region in a first place tie with R.E. Lee.

Next, the Devils were handed their first region defeat by Mary Persons, who won 21-0.

Three fumbles helped to lose the game for Jackson.

Nevertheless, Jackson was determined not to be intimidated. In a high-stakes defensive onslaught, the Devils defeated state-ranked Upson County 21-20 on Red Devil Hill. It was the best game Jackson had played in years. Tracey Dumas, Donover Childs, and Bernard Banks keyed the offense — John Burns was outstanding as always.

Against state-ranked #2 R.E. Lee, however, the Devils were not so successful. Offense failed to score, but linebacker Fenico Grier retrieved a fumble which he ran 75 yards for a defensive touchdown. The game would end 24-7.

Manchester, the last regular season opponent for the Devils provided an explosive and close game for the Devils to cap the regular season, but Jackson lost 20-18, a victim of a blocked extra point and a failed two point conversion.

Jackson drew R.E. Lee in the playoffs and lost, 43-0. Lee went on to become state runner-up while the Devils prepared for next season.

Cheerleaders aid football cause

In the spring of 1987, approximately 40 girls gave their best shot to become a member of a select group of JHS girls. Thirteen girls were chosen to lead JHS in their quest for a new winning tradition. These girls got to know each other well during their four days of learning, training, and preparing at the National Cheerleading Association Camp held at Furman University in Greenville, S.C.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Jac Dorminey, the girls won four Superior ribbons for competition and an overall Superior ribbon. They were also nominated for the Award of Excellence for which only fourteen squads were nominated out of fifty-five.

Chosen to lead the group of thirteen cheerleaders were Sundra McWilliams, captain and Jennifer McCravy co-captain.

During the latter part of the summer, much work was put into the laying-out and printing of the 1987 football program. This was coordinated by Victoria Sanvidge and Jennifer McCravy.

Throughout the season, spirit remained high as the girls led the school in pep rallies.

It's deja vu! Lady Devils do it again — win third state championship

The Lady Devils came from behind to win the last game of the state finals 10 to 15 over North Gwinnett on October 24, 1987.

"Heart won it, and desire" said Coach Watts. "They showed me more heart than I've ever seen."

The Devils had struggled with only a few teams during the year's regular season, and in fact were undefeated in region play. Led by the experience of veterans Audrey Dodson, Charlene Mayfield, Lacey Branan, Earnestine Stodghill, and Missy Stewart, the Jackson girls were expected to do well. "They had chemistry that can't be defined," said Coach Watts of the team.

Senior Missy Stewart added, "I think we worked harder to get there this year. Coach Watts worked us harder, and that's what we needed."

The Lady Devils had won the state championship in 1983 and 1984. They were runners up in 1985 and 1986.

Devils are Region Champions, Ranked Ninth in State

The JHS varsity boys basketball team captured the Region 3-AA basketball championship by beating R.E. Lee 60-58 in the final game of the region tournament. The team later made it to the final eight teams in the second round of the state tournament.

In the state playoffs, the Devils won the first game against Brooks County, 82-77, but the game against Claxton the following night ended the season for the Devils. Claxton defeated the Devils 61-53 in double overtime. The Devils ended the season 10-4 in region play.

The team will lose five seniors. Coach Tracey Curtis said that Arthur Sims and Curtis Grier were a big part of the team's success, and "They will be sorely missed next year."

"Making it to the final eight teams in the state was a big accomplishment for the Devils," said Coach Curtis. The team was later declared ninth in the top ten of the state.

Lady Devils give it their best shot

After finishing the regular season in third place with a 10-4 region record, the Lady Devils went on to claim the region runner-up position.

Coach Ralph Hogan said his girls showed, "spirit and determination" as they faced undefeated state ranked Upson County in the game for the region title; however, the Lady Devils lost 101-53.

"The important thing is that we made it through the region tournament and to the state playoffs," said Coach Hogan. In their first game of the tournament, the Lady Devils were eliminated by Seminole County 55-32.

A big part of the Lady Devils' success was Rachelle Pye. She was named to the Atlanta Constitution's Class AA second basketball team. Pye is a 5'4" junior who scored over 500 points in the season.

Other members of the Lady Devils were Charlene Mayfield, Meneka Tyson, Teketa Tyson, Anjanette Maddox, Shenita Freeman, Dawn Hasty, Shonda Respress, Janice Grier, Kenya Henderson, Juanita Askin, Kim Usher, Missy Stewart, and Seletha Goodrum.

I am a frustrated person with a yearbook deadline
I wonder if I'll ever be able to draw a layout
I hear Mrs. H holler
I see Valerie shedding hair
I want Justin put in front of a firing squad
I am a frustrated person with a yearbook deadline
I pretend I do not have any yearbook assignments
I feel as if I am accomplishing nothing
I touch the layout sheets
I worry that no one will like my arrangement
I cry out for help
I am a frustrated person with a yearbook deadline
I understand the yearbook is due by June
I say 'Ah, I'll do it later'
I dream that Justin will say "Shall I do that for you?"
I try to come up with neat ideas for the design
I hope Jennifer won't yell if I use the picture with her eyes closed
I am a frustrated person with a yearbook deadline.

(A poem by Becky Garrard)

JHS Banquet of Champions

"JHS Banquet of Champions" the banner along the head table read. And so it was, with many students receiving honors for their participation in various athletic activities at Jackson High. Football, softball, track, and cheerleading participants were all recognized, with several receiving special honors.

Football Coach Kenny Moore presented John Burns, a defensive back, with the Golden Helmet award and Most Valuable player trophy. Becky Garrard was presented with the trophy for most spirited cheerleader. "I was surprised," said Becky. "It is very special to be honored by your peers."

Coach Carol Watts presented the awards to the softball players. The team members were also given windbreakers. Charlene Mayfield was awarded most valuable player. Cross Country awards were presented by Coach Terry Turner. Mark Brooks received the MVP for the boys team, with the award going to Anjanette Maddox for the girls team. Junior Varsity football players were given certificates of participation for their hard work throughout the season.

John Lastinger was the guest speaker of the evening. Former quarterback for the University of Georgia Bulldogs, he now is a sales representaive for Josten's Inc.

Porter Named Star Student: Others Honored

Eighteen students were honored at the annual Star Student Banquet sponsored by the Jackson Exchange Club. Tim Porter was named Star Student because of his high score on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT). He chose Mrs. Sandra Brooks as his Star Teacher. When asked how he achieved his Star status, Porter replied, "I achieved it because of the excellent education I received at Jackson High School." Students honored were those that scored 900 or better on the SAT. Each student then had the opportunity to choose the teacher to be recognized as the one who had the most influence on his academic career. The guest speaker at the banquet was Air Force Ret. Brig. General Robert Lee Scott who is the author of several books.

Students going that extra mile

It's Valdosta State College for Henderson and Carter this summer

Jackson High School had four Governor's Honors Program nominees. They were Steve Henderson in science, Kim Carter in vocational management, Sharon Duty in social studies, and Kristy Boozer in art. The four students went to Clayton State College in March to be tested and interviewed.

Steve Henderson and Kim Carter were elected as finalists and will attend a program held this summer at Valdosta State College. Sharon Duty and Kristy Boozer were selected as alternates and will attend the program if spaces are available.

Homecoming Court Displays Elegant Style

Glamorous dresses, smiling faces, and dapper escorts set the scene for the 1987 Homecoming Court. The senior class was represented by six candidates. They were Vicky Williams, Aretha Watson, Shanna Thurman, Jennifer McCravy, Cindy Heath, and Audrey Dodson. The junior class representatives were Shonta Henderson and Kim Ingram. The sophomore class representatives were Terri Kitchens and Jenni English.

The girls participated in the Homecoming Parade Friday afternoon and later appeared, dressed to perfection and looking their best, at halftime at the football game. Cindy Heath was crowned Homecoming Queen. Jennifer McCravy was awarded Senior Queen.

Miss Red Devil Cindy Heath

Cindy Heath Chosen Most Photogenic

A tradition continues at Jackson High with the Second Annual Miss Red Devil Contest. Cindy Heath was awarded the title this year with the runners-up being Lorrie Bowden and Francie Russell.

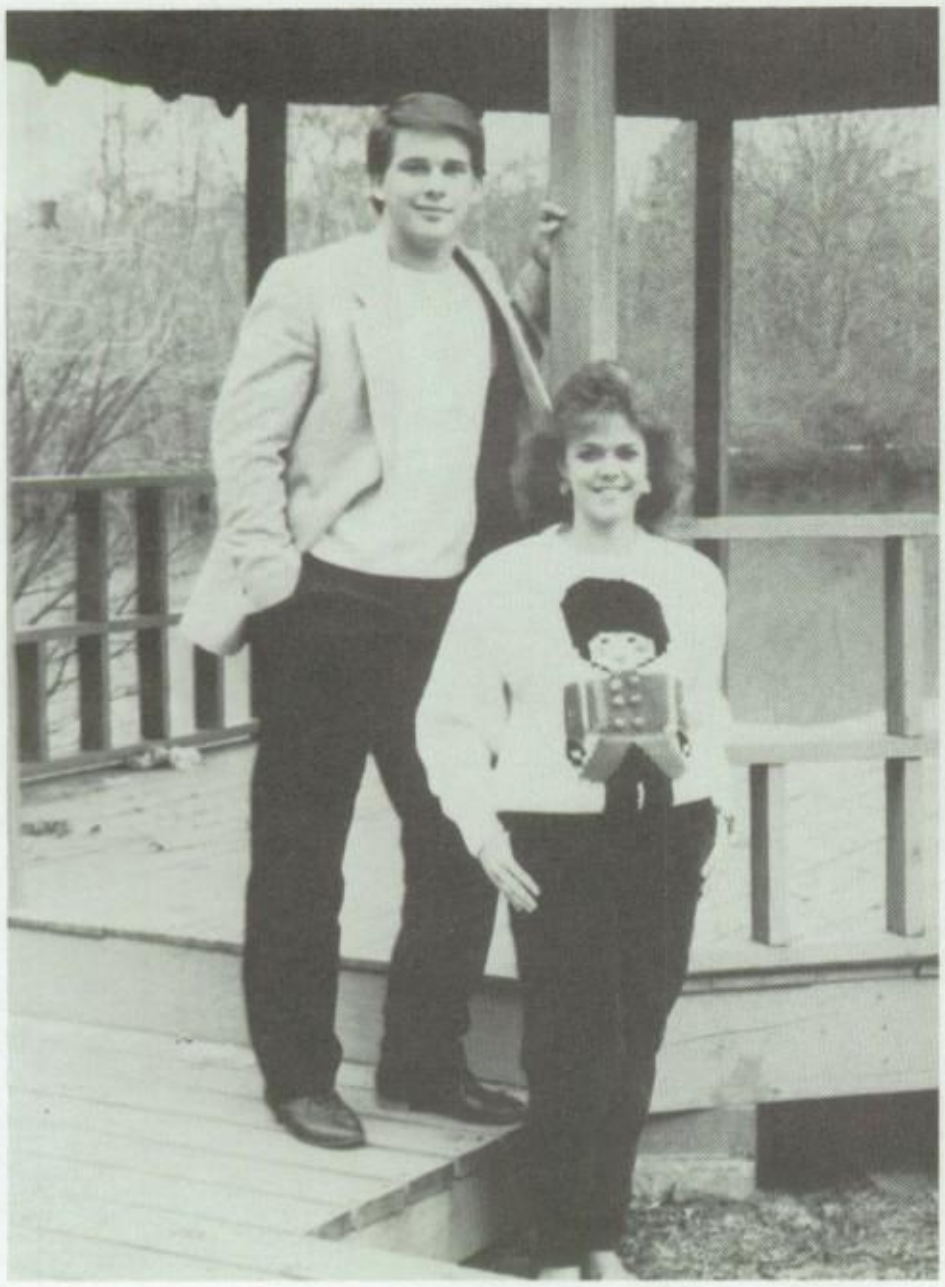
This contest was sponsored by the Imprint Staff. There were seven participants who each submitted a personal photograph. The photographs were judged by Jim and Joe's Photography Shop in Griffin, Georgia.

Mr. and Miss JHS

SENIOR SUPERLATIVES CHOSEN

The greatest thing about receiving the Superlative Miss JHS according to Cindy Heath is, "knowing my fellow classmates chose me." She enjoys spending her free time with her family and her friends playing softball and fourwheeling. After finishing college, she plans on practicing law.

Tim Cawthon is not only Mr. JHS, but Senior Class President, also. He describes himself as "an agressive football and baseball player." He hopes to go to college and play baseball, but his main objective is to go with the flow and graduate.



Most Popular

"To be popular among my friends is very important to me." said Sundra McWilliams in reply to being named Most Popular. She aims to always have a good time no matter where she is or who she is with. After college, she hopes to be a teacher like her inspiration and role model, Mrs. Carole Lunsford.

Matt O'Neal is a non-conformist who has developed his own style in the past four years. According to Matt, "I'm just going to work and live life for at least a year, then I'll start on a career."

Best Looking

Jennifer McCravy will "always remember being named a Senior Superlative." She dresses stylishly, but not trendy. She is actively involved in extra-curricular activities. She will attend Gordon College in the fall.

"It was a great feeling" according to Danny Edmonds to receive the Superlative of Best Looking. His casual dress and hobbies portray his personality accurately and he has been involved in sports for the past four years. He plans to attend Gordon College for two years and then transferring, perhaps to a medical school.

Best Dressed

Zipporaha Head exudes a style of confidence. Her style is exemplified by her clothing which is elegant and yet, comfortable.

Jason Phillips describes himself as, "an outgoing and stylish person." My style of dress is different from my overall style because I like to be original." he says. He plans to receive a Master's Degree in Business and Management.

Most Athletic

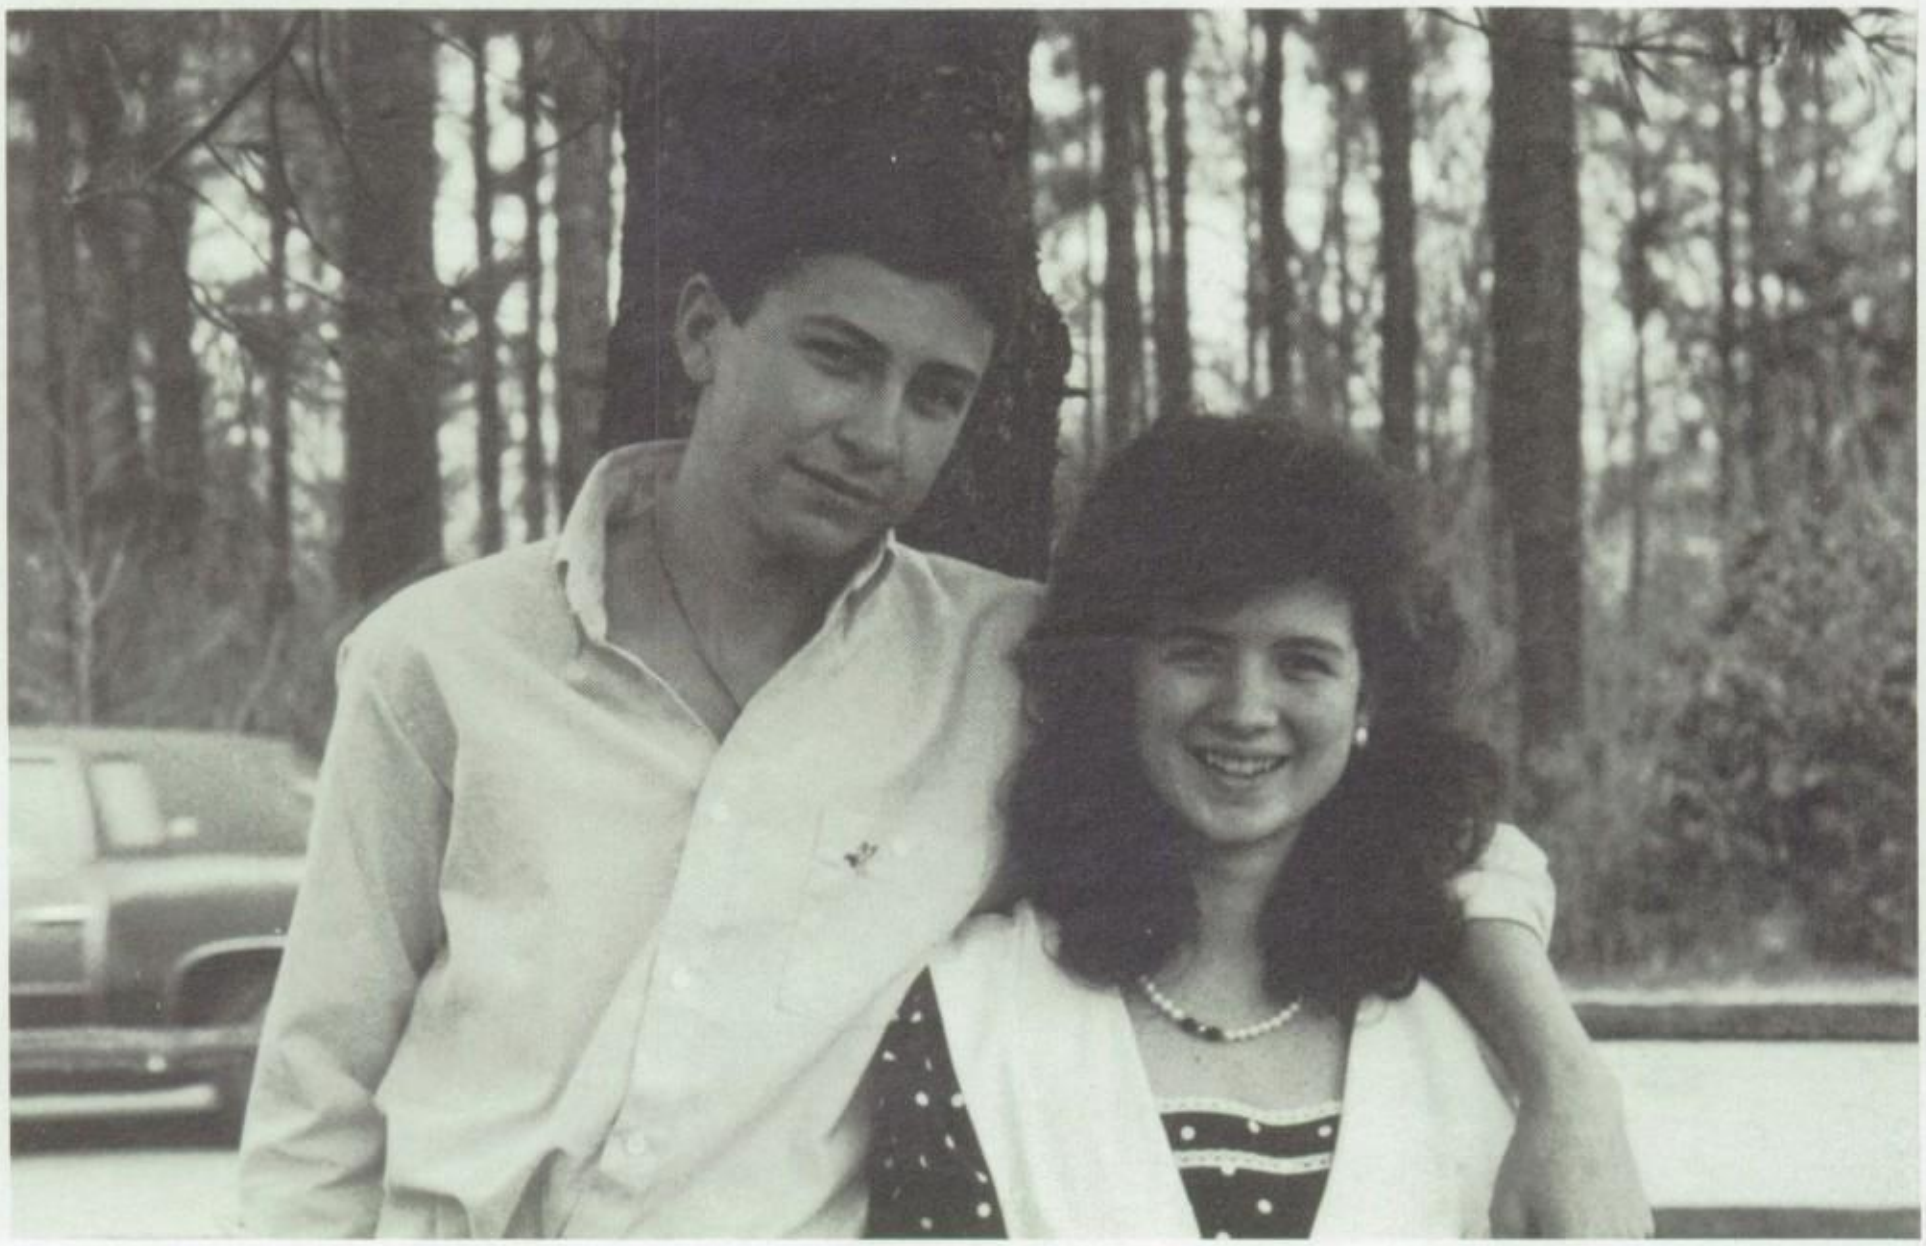
Missy Stewart felt it was close competition between her and her fellow classmates and was very surprised when she was named "Most Athletic." Her bright-colored clothes and easy-going personality reflect her attitude towards life. When she is not playing softball, basketball, or tennis, she enjoys working with wood. After graduating from Gordon College and attending another college, she hopes to become an accountant.

"I was very happy to be named most athletic." John Burns describes himself as a mild-mannered guy who plans on majoring in the business field.

Most Talented

"To be recognized for my talent is very special because I've worked very hard for ten years to be the best pianist that I can," said Valerie Smith. She feels that she is conscientious and has a casual, but not lazy style. After attending four years of college or more, she plans on entering the field of communications.

Joe Knight was voted "Most Talented' by his classmates because of his ability to fix anything mechanical. Joe will attend the University of Georgia in the fall.



Friendliest

Edith Cook thought it was "nifty" to be named Friendliest. Her statement, "I've never been one to try and live up to people's vision of me. I just try to be myself," depicts her casual style. She plans to attend college, but has not decided what area to major in yet.

Greg Garlin always has a kind word and a friendly smile to share. He is an easy-going person who makes others feel comfortable with his outgoing personality.

Class Clown

David Tyson's teachers describe him as "quick to make everyone laugh" and he personally feels that he is "fresh from head to toe." He enjoys sports of all kinds and especially loves to dance. After high school, he plans to join the Navy for at least eight years and then "raise a respectable family" like his father, Joe.

Making people smile is something Dale Robertson loves to do. Her outgoing personality and comfortable style puts everyone at ease. Dale plans on attending Gordon College for two years and then becoming a legal secretary.

Most Likely To Succeed

Candiluz Moreno was pleased that her hard work and many extra-curricular activities earned her a senior superlative. When she is around her friends eating pizza and watching a movie, she has a casual and happy outlook on life. She plans to graduate from Oglethorpe University in Atlanta.

Rivers Waits knew that he had worked diligently to make good grades and the Superlative he received made it worth the while. His unpredictable and wild personality make his style one of a kind. After partying the summer away, he will attend Emory University.

Outstanding Seniors

To be named an Outstanding Senior is a great honor which was bestowed upon nine seniors this year. They were each the next highest vote getter in the categories for Senior Superlatives.

Tim Porter felt, "It was great to be rewarded for my hard work with this honor." Tim possesses a phlegmatic and laid back style and enjoys music of all types. He plans to major in business, economics, or political science in college.

Rosie Goodrum is a quiet person who is dedicated to being the best that she can be through academic studies.

Synopsis Of A Senior Year

Class Of '88 Leads With Style

The Jackson High School Class of 1988 began the year with new freedoms, such as wearing shorts. And with storing new memories, such as the Lady Devils state softball championship. Class members put their noses in textbooks to meet the requirements to walk on the football field in June. Time was still found to enjoy football games and to socialize. Others leafed through college catalogs and spent long Saturday mornings filling in circles on the SAT.

Fall quickly blew by and winter was upon us. We received our pictures and mulled over the fact that the year was going by so fast. The Class of '88 celebrated Christmas, viewed a slide show, watched basketball games. We were setting goals and anticipating the future in the back of our minds.

Spring finally arrived. The prom was a great success. Baseball, track, golf, and tennis were on the minds of athletes as well as spectators. Breakfast together was a wonderful experience.

June came and we went out into the real world to fulfill the dreams that four years of hard work, good times, bad times, and memories at Jackson High helped create.

You can count on the juniors to lead in style

The juniors have every type person needed to make a well-rounded class. The class of 1989 is independent and active, but also loud and wild. Though they study during the week, they live it up on the weekends.

Sonya Moser and Amy Williams sport the faded denim fad. Juniors don't mind the crowded and loud lunchroom.

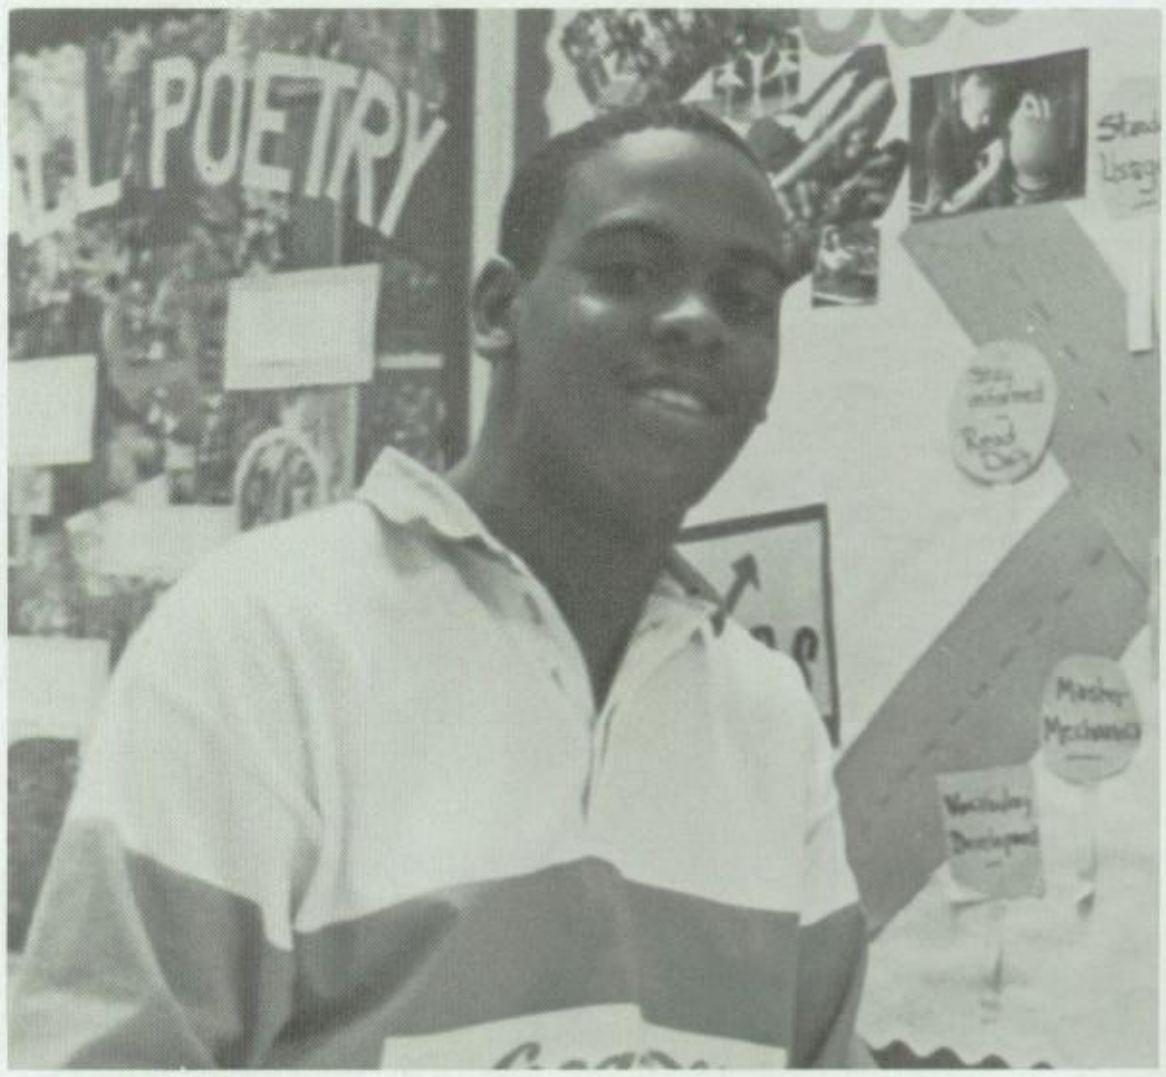
"It's very exciting and others should join also."

"Performing onstage shows students at school that I like chorus. It's very exciting," Tracey Strickland explains his interest in singing earnestly, "and they should join also." Tracey sings in chorus for his second consecutive year. This past year, he tried out for the Advanced Chorus class and was accepted. Tracey also competed in the All State Competition. "I did not place," Tracey went on to say," but it was my first year and now I know what to do."

But chorus is not all just tryouts, performances, and competitions. Although it is hard work, there are rewards other than accomplishments and applause after a performance. "We are planning a trip to Disney World in April," Tracey continues, "to celebrate the Constitution of the United States."



Roll over Trevor

"Watching Dad all the time got me excited about kayaking," Trevor Hutchins explains, "And when he asked if I wanted to learn, I said 'yes!' " Trevor's father, Tim Gregg, taught Trevor to kayak 3 years ago. Trevor has his own equipment and enjoys his trips to North Georgia where he shoots the rapids on the Oconee and Chattota River.

Now it is getting scarier though, going into bigger rapids. "It's exhilarating when you get through them. You feel a great sense of accomplishment."

Freshmen have style

Every Jackson High School student has a chance to develop his own individual style. The class of 1991 is no exception. With clubs open for membership, sports beckoning to athletes, and academic honors to be won, the opportunities were limitless for this year's freshmen class to flaunt their style. And these freshmen strutted their stuff all year long. Breaking out of the neophyte's shell, they found themselves becoming true Red Devils. The freshmen realized that succeeding at JHS is merely a matter of style.

"Being elected to an office is always an honor," says Phillis Taylor, "especially when it is president of your entire class!" Bucky Beddingfield is vice-president.

Freshmen sport style

Since ten hours of physical education is required, many Freshmen include this in their curriculum. Coach Moore, Coach Turner, and Coach Watts make sure that every student is actively involved and help the students develop a good exercise program. During the course of the year, the students will participate in basketball, softball, volleyball, football, badmitton, and tennis. Not only will the students get to play the games, they will also learn the history and official rules while still having fun.

Freshmen flaunt style

Every day of the school year the Freshmen class finds a way to flaunt its style. During Homecoming Week, they were especially busy. Friday before Homecoming Week, they voted to have Jenni English and Terri Kitchens represent them on the Homecoming Court. On Monday, they showed their spirit by dressing up for the first spirit day. The Freshmen had high participation everyday. They had 20 people dressed on Monday, 21 on Tuesday, 24 on Wednesday, and 37 on Thursday. They capped off the week with Red, White, and Blue Day. 67 people dressed in red, white, or blue to show they were behind the Red Devils all the way!

At the pep rally, the Freshmen were spirit-filled and hyper. They helped the rest of the JHS students rock the gym and cheer the Devils on to a victory over the Pike County Pirates.

Amy Awtry and Leonora Watson sport their fifties' style on "Back in Time" Day.

Freshmen strive for style

Everyday at 12:35, JHS students make a mad dash to the lunchroom. Are they really that eager to eat the lunchroom food? No, they are just heading toward "their" table. At the beginning of the year, each group of people establishes a table as its own personal property. Freshmen learn quickly which tables have already been taken. In a place where everything is either rented or borrowed, a free table becomes a thing of value.

Matt Hoekwater, Clint Crowe, and Brandon Washington quickly established this spot as their own.

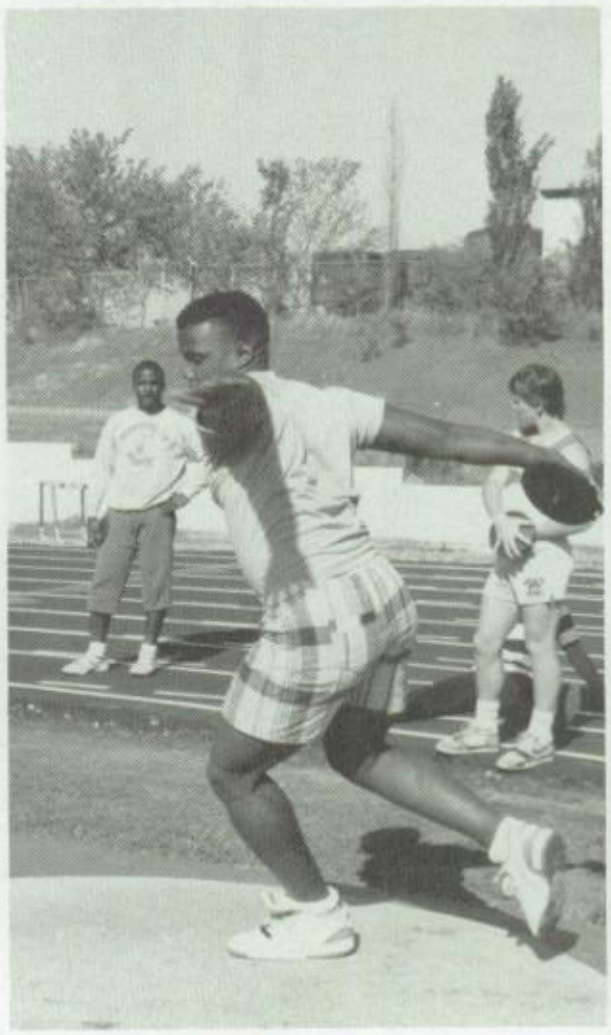
Boys Track
A Winning Style

The Boys track team certainly showed their winning style this season by winning the Region with a 6 and 1 record. They placed 6th out of 16 teams in the Jefferson Relays.

Coach Terry Tanner was very enthusiastic about the team's success and wholeheatedly believes if "you just try to do the very best you can in all walks of life, winning will take care of itself."

Below — Mark Brooks and Cornell Moore take the lead in a local track meet. Right — Mark Wise and Llewellyn Miller are quite pleased with their scores as Coach Terry Tanner presents them.

One small step for Jeffrey Fish; one giant leap for the boys track team.



George Ball hurls the discus as other members of the team watch it rocket into the air.

Ian Bargeron watches as Floyd Hebbard practices the pole vault.

Girls' Track

This year's track season was very productive. Led by Coach Rick Dorminy, the girls went all the way to capture the Region 3AA Championship. The members of the 1987-88 girls' track team are Nicole Brown, Ericka Evans, Yolanda Grier, Dawn Hasty, Kenya Henderson, Anjanette Maddox, Tamekya Parks, Shonda Respress. Olivia Shannon, Kimenthia Usher, Vanessa Whitehurst.

Young Devils struggle to gain region title.

Four gutsy seniors led the inexperienced baseball team to an unexoected Region 3-AA Championship for the third year in a row. The region record for 1988 was 11 wins and 3 losses. The Devils were defeated by Hancock Central in the quarterfinals of the state playoffs, losing the first game 3-5, winning the second, 13-10 and losing the third 5-6 in the bottom of the seventh. The Devils were 14-10 overall including tournament and pre-season play.

Top right: Tim Cawthon gets ready to slide into home — and the Lee catcher, if necessary. Cawthon came in on a Maddox double in Jackson's 22-10 stomping of Lee in Thomaston.
Middle left: Sims stretches and leaps revealing how he earned his second baseman slot. McCart backs up Sims, and umpire Charlie Brown gets into position to call the play.
Middle right: Maddox moved to the clean up position of the batting order about 1/3 of the way through the season.

Senior pitcher Terry head pitched a career 327 strike outs during the season and claimed a spot on the South All-Star team. Head also hit three home runs during the State quarterfinals against Hancock Central. Head was awarded a baseball scholarship by South Georgia College.

"Terry was a quiet leader all year," said Coach Bill Nelson.

John Burns was another quiet leader who showed the younger players by example how to reach and strive and go that extra mile. John was in the pitching rotation for most of the season and played an errorless center field.

Tim Cawthon and Wesley Walker, by contrast, yelled, cajoled and cheered the Devils on.

Cawthon made several impossible plays in right field. He never made it through a game without getting absolutely filthy either from a belly buster catch or a butt buster slide. Cawthon had a dependable bat. Walker handled some pitching duties and back up third base. "I provided moral support," Walker said, "I tried to keep the dug out up."

With these seniors and "The Ghost of Wallace Field" the Red Devils came out with only three losses in 14 region games. Harris County beat Jackson twice, 1-6 and 1-9, but the Tigers were knocked out of the region playoffs by losses to Upson and Lee. Upson handed the Devils a most embarrassing 16-1 wallop, but the yellow jackets were later stung by the Red Devils 4-2, 5-1, and 1-0, the last two in the region playoffs.

Top: Zant digs into the sand pit at Hancock Central in Sparta and turns down a ball. Zant eventually got a couple of base hits in Jackson's 13-10 win over the Bulldogs.
Left Cener: Nelson and Tanner discuss stretegy during the second game of the region playoffs against Upson. The score was 0-0 until the bottom of the seventh when Hilderbrand hit it over second to score Burns who had walked and stolen to third.
Right center: Hoard holds a Blue Devil on first. The town of Manchester is in the background. The Red Devils were victorious, downing their hosts 15-1.
Bottom: Hoard scrambles for homeplace, but Joe Brown is getting ready to give the Hancock Central first baseman the call. Jackson lost to the Bulldogs in the first game of the state quarterfinals 3-5. Number 15, John Borns, stands out of the way of the play.

Nelson Coaches South All Stars.

After leading his club to 10 region titles in 12 years of coaching, Bill Nelson was named to coach the South in the Georgia High School Association's All Star game held in July. Nelson said, "I was tickled to death. It means a lot to get recognition and pat on the back from your peers." Nelson was chosen by his colleagues in the Georgia High School Coaches Association.

Nelson can claim over 240 career wins, something few coaches can do.

"In coaching, time tells, It takes time to build a winning tradition. We have a good program here because of continuity and strong community support through the recreation programs."

Top left: Burns gets burned in a run down between two Rockdale County Bulldogs. Jackson won, however, 9-7. The Devils posted their best record ever in the South Metro Invitational Tournament with three wins and three losses. Total pre-region record was three wins and seven losses.
Top right: Mesh, wire, foam, steel, and plastic surround catcher Casey Carter. Carter worked every game earning a tough reputation within the region.
Middle left: Lots of youngsters including freshman Sean Joyner saw action in Jackson's 17-2 trouncing of Lamar. Joyner's speed, alterness, and hustle earned him the #1 pinch runner spot on the Devil team. Andy Maddox and Casey Carter wait to bat.
Middle right: Freshman Mike McCart gets ready to get down and cover the wide hole between second and third. McCart was a catcher all through Little League. Nelson needed a shortstop, however, and McCart came through.
Bottom right: Kyle Maddox, mid-strike. Maddox developed as a pitcher late in the season after John Burns was injured. Maddox pitched in the playoff game, resting ace Terry Head. Burns was injured when a ball hot off a Yellow Jacket's bat hit him in the forearm.

FRIENDS AND FAMILY

SUPPORT SENIORS

The class of 1988 continued the tradition of collecting patrons in order to obtain a free yearbook. Seniors had to have at least $43 in patrons, so friends and family became bombarded with requests for money. Clarence White, Dannator Hightower, Wade Henderson, Wysonia Fears, and Terry Head led the class in the number of patrons with 148, 115, 106, 106, and 105, respectively.

This year, Seniors were asked to list three adjectives they felt describe their style. Selected adjectives are listed below each Senior's name. Patrons follow these adjectives.

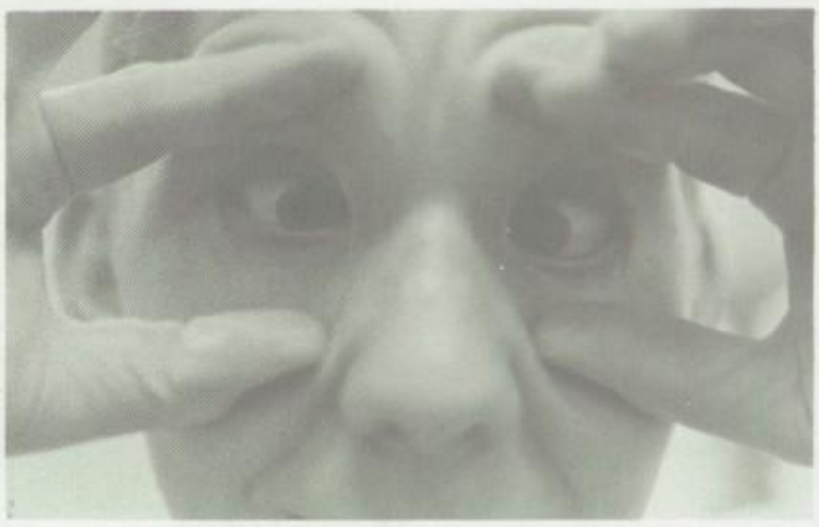
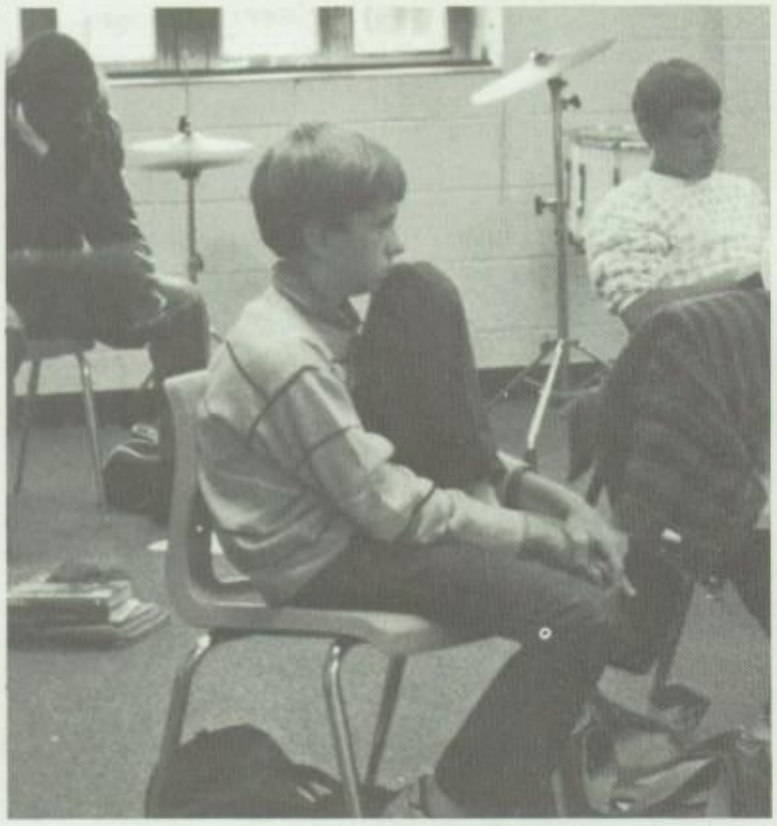
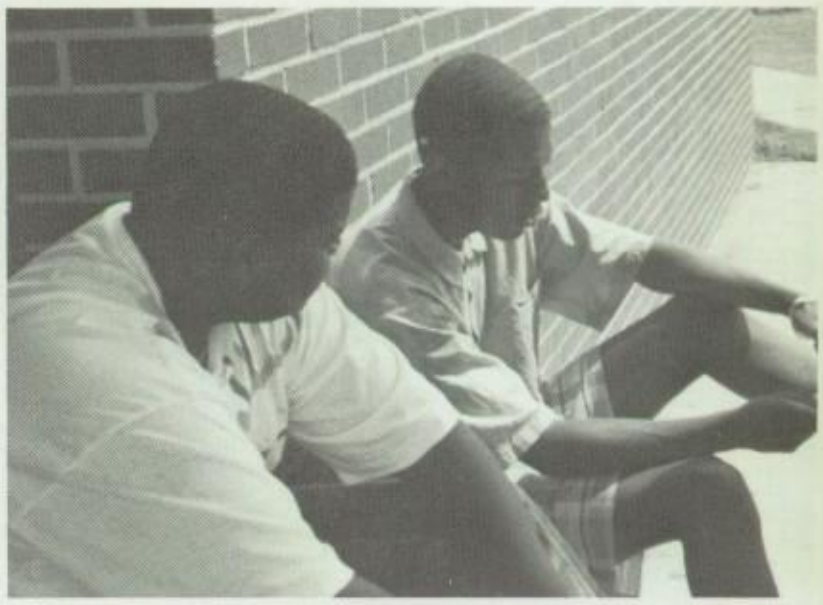
The 1988 Imprint, Volume 9, was published by Josten's Printing and Publishing Division, Clarksville, Tennessee. The 208 page publication contained 16 pages of color and was compiled by a staff of nineteen juniors and seniors with a great deal of assistance from our Representative, Mr. Dale Bennett. The typeface used was Benguiat Book, with headlines in Benguiat Book Bold, and the book was printed on 80-pound semi-gloss paper. The film used by the staff was Tri-X Pan 400 speed and Hilton Photography of the Delmar Company did many of the posed shots. Special thanks goes to Mrs. Cheryl Hilderbrand, our Advisor, for ignoring the staff's outbursts of schizophrenia and pushing us to get the book finished. We would also like to thank Ms. Marian Sanders for generously letting us use her darkroom, the entire teaching staff for putting up with our interruptions of very intense class periods, and Mrs. Sandra Brooks for her advice and for the generous use of her equipment. Mrs. Betty Bowden also deserves recognition for keeping up with our financial situation which was sometimes a frightening job. A special thank you goes to Mrs. Pam Mosteller for letting us "take care of yearbook business" without a hassle.







And so Jackson High closes another chapter with the last bell of the year. Trends were set, fads came and went, and people came into themselves. Still, through it all, there was that underlying fact, that everything is
